The 13th ACENDIO Conference Committee Report

For the General Assembly, March 19th, 2021, Online Conference

Introduction

This is the first online conference organized by ACENDIO. The main reason for organizing this conference online was the Covid-19. The Scientific Conference Committee (SCC) was accountable for organizing the scientific content for the 13th ACENDIO conference. The Conference Committee (CC) was responsible for the practical organization of the conference. Based on experiences with online conferences it was decided to contract a professional online platform and assistance. The CC and the SCC together with the Board of Directors worked together during the whole planning of the 13th ACENDIO conference. This included writing a save the date flyer with the conference theme, the call for abstracts, conference topic and subtopic descriptions, inviting keynote speakers and abstract reviewers, and administrating the abstract submission and evaluation process. The workshops planned for St. Pölten 2020 were included in the conference program for the 13th ACENDIO conference. ACENDIO aims to offer hybrid conferences in the future and the 13th The ACENDIO want to host a high-quality online event by close collaboration with a company with extensive experiences in offering online events.

Administration

The submission and review process has been organized in the online platform EasyChair.

The submission and review process

The 13th ACENDIO Conference received a total of 61 abstracts. All the submitted abstracts were reviewed by at least two reviewers, and the scoring and comments from the reviewers were compared. A total of 48 abstracts were accepted for oral presentation and 11 were accepted for poster presentation. All the authors were informed about the review outcome, and the planned online conference due to the Covid-19 outbreak.

Emails to all the authors

All the authors have received information about the registration process to the conference, and also emailed a reminder (10.02.2021).

Scientific program for the 13th ACENDIO Conference 2021, Online

The Scientific program for the 13th ACENDIO Conference was prepared in close collaboration with the CC and the SCC. Helen de Graaf -Waar, Wolter Paans and Mariann Fossum jointly worked on the program: defined and ordered the themes when preparing the program, posting online in the beginning of January. A few authors withdraw their abstracts for oral and poster presentations due to personal reasons.

Information posted on Website, Twitter and Facebook

Information about the 13th ACENDIO Conference has been posted at the ACENDIO Website, ACENDIO Twitter and Facebook account. Besides all ACENDIO members received emails from the secretary.

Planning and Organizing the 13th ACENDIO Conference

The planning started with contracting EventInsight and Bano. Helen de Graaf -Waar has been the main contact person and worked closely with the company. The first step was to prepare and upload relevant information to the Event App and the Conference System together with EventInsight and Bano. The online conference was prepared with several practice sessions. Regular meetings were organized, and the program was adjusted, and it was regularly discussed how to inform participants.

We would like to thank the Board of Directors and the President for support and great collaboration.
